

Dear Member,

July- "We hold these truths to be self-evident, that all men are created equal, that they are endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable Rights, that among these are Life, Liberty and the pursuit of Happiness." - The Declaration of Independence celebrated on the 4th July, or 7/4 as they would have it. How we miss that colony!

July Speaker Meeting

The July monthly meeting is set for 2.00 pm on Tuesday 8th July at the Methodist Church Hall. The speaker will be Tim Stubbs and the subject is Reflections of Life growing up as the youngest child of a Lincolnshire village baker.

Tim will entertain us with stories of the people he met delivering bread from his father's bakery in Thurlby in the 1970s.

New Members' Coffee Morning

This took place on 18th June, from 10:00 to 12:00 at Louth Indoor Bowls Club; the Committee set out extensive information about interest groups group leaders explained some of the many options.

Interest Groups news

The Outdoor Bowls Group is doing well, and the Aviation Interest Group has organised a trip to the Bomber Command Centre at Lincoln in July.

The Country Dance Group will resume on a date to be fixed, probably in October. Those interested should contact Shirley Poths at shirleypoths@outlook.com

Events happening in July

RAF Cranwell is running an exhibition "Women in Airforce Blue" at its Heritage Centre until next February, and the International Bomber Command Centre at Lincoln is running a "Women at War" Exhibition Until the end of the year. Also there until the end of August is the stunning Lancaster Poppy Display.

At Burleigh House until 31st August there is an Art Installation in the gardens called Botanic Tapestry, and inside they are celebrating Flowers in Art with displays from their collection.
